We are most happy to announce the start of our International Recognition for Constellators.

Constellators can now apply for International Recognition for Constellators by CI. In 2023 our recognition will be completely cost-free to allow our CI members to gain experiences.

Before you rush now to start, please read this newsletter carefully, as we give you some important information here around the process.

INFORMATION FOR CI MEMBERS, WHO ALREADY SET UP A PROFILE

To set up your profile, you needed to register with us. The data of this registration will stay in your log-in profile which consists of first name, family name, and nickname and allows you to further use the internal messenger or set up forums.

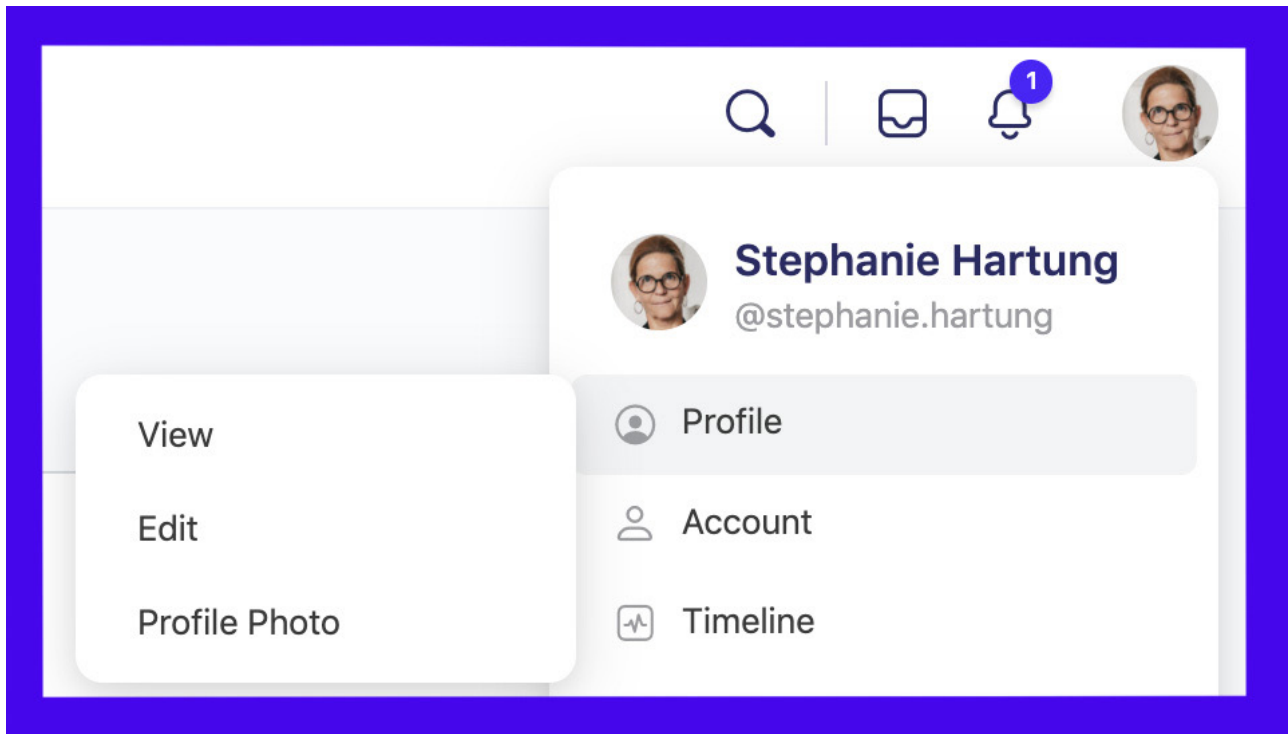

The login profile will stay (see picture below). You do not need to do anything.

Well done! We will now review your application

Our local team will check the consistency of your questionnaire and certificates. If everything is in order, we will publish your questionnaire as an extension of your free profile and place the Recognition batch at the right top of your profile.

You will now be found in the constellators search with detailed search criteria.

If you have any questions about your new profile or your application for International Recognition, please do not hesitate to contact us at call@constellators-international.com.

Our team will be happy to support you!
